Statewide Winners Substance Abuse Awareness Poster Contest

Albany Council 173 recently honored two Statewide Winners in the annual K of C Substance Abuse Awareness Poster Contest at a dinner with their Principals, Parents, and Contest Judges. Fiona Leary, Saint Catherine of Siena School (Mater Christi) and Taylor Blue Clarke, Blessed Sacrament School were recognized for their successful entries in their age groups on the themes of Drug Abuse Awareness and Alcohol Abuse Awareness respectfully. They each received Certificates from New York State Council Knights of Columbus signed by State Deputy Art Harris.

Pictured here are Contest Coordinator Jim Byron, PGK; Sister Mary Patricia Lynch, Principal of Blessed Sacrament School; Taylor Blue Clarke, Blessed Sacrament; Fiona Leary, Saint Catherine of Siena School; Mrs. Terry Ewell, Principal of Saint Catherine of Siena School; and Grand Knight Paul Vogt, Council 173.

Next year's contest is now getting underway. We wish all the participants God Speed.
