Dear Supporter and Friend:

My name is Rafe Tangorra and I'm a student at Kellenberg High School. I totally feel like I'm one lucky guy because having fun with lots of friends in my community, school and work comes easily to me—for kids with autism, though, IT'S REALLY HARD! I've realized how autism effects so many people. It's tough and can make people feel really alone. Today, more than 1 in 150 kids and adults have it – that's a new diagnosis every 21 minutes!

Luckily, right here in our community is AHRC Nassau's Fay J. Lindner Center for Autism. Since last year's Rock Out event, I have been volunteering as a peer mentor and have even brought my music to the kids at the Center! It's been so awesome for me to experience this first hand and to be a part of improving the lives of others; I feel like I'm really making a difference!

I totally get how important the Center's work is and I am STOKED about helping the Center help those kids who are struggling! Together with my family and the most awesome friends ever, we're holding the 2nd Annual Rock Out Autism show, again at the Nutty Irishman in Farmingdale. You may have heard or helped with our first event last year. We raised $12,000+ & 100% of what we raised and will raise this year is being donated directly to the Center!

To really make this show ROCK, WE NEED YOUR SUPPORT and most of all, SPONSORS! All of our sponsors will get lots of recognition, which you can read about on the back of this page! For more information and ticket sale locations, call us: 516-396-0930 or visit our Rock Out Autism Facebook and Myspace pages (Myspace.com/Rockoutautismshow). We'll also be selling Rock Out Autism2! t-shirts, bracelets and raffles.

With the high rate of autism, you probably know someone coping with it: a neighbor, a friend - maybe even someone in your own family. So be a sponsor, join us on April 24th and come rock out! Make this your own rockin' family event. Together we can make a difference!!

Your friend,
Rafe
